A HOME WEDDING.

Miss McConnell and Dwight F. Towne United in Marriage Saturday Evening.

The marriage of Miss Amy Anna McConnell to Dwight Fox Towne was celebrated Saturday evening at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Herbert Simpson of Diamond street. Rev. Father Ferrar performed the ceremony, which was witnessed only by the immediate relatives and a few friends of the bride and groom.

The bride and groom were unattended. The living room and dining room of the Simpson home were attractively decorated with white chrysanthemums, smilax and asparagus fern. During the ceremony the bride and groom stood under an archway of smilax and flowers.

A dinner was served after the marriage.

Those who witnessed the marriage and were present at the dinner are Frank Towne, the groom's father; Miss Lena Towne and Beverly Towne, all of San Bernardino; Miss Lena Cox of Pomona; Miss Jennie Cox, W. E. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Simpson, all of Redondo.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a brown broadcloth tailor suit and white silk waist.

Mr. and Mrs. Towne left on the 6:18 Los Angeles and Redondo car. They made a short trip to San Bernardino, Redlands and Riverside, returning Tuesday. They will live for the present in Frank Towne's cottage on Beach Row and later will occupy a new cottage on Francisca, which the groom is preparing for his bride.

Both young people have the best wishes of a host of friends in Redondo.
